Juneau,s lumber yard, on the south side of the railroad and proceeded to the Fort. On arrival we proceeded to raise a flag pole sixty feet high above ground. and raised old glory to the top of it, and gave it three rousing cheers. One feature of the flag and pole raising, is that the pole is in two pieces, spliced and bound together with iron bands. One of the pieces was prepared by Comrade Hammond an ex soldier on the Umon side. and the other half by Mr. Hicks who was one of the Johnnies, having served in a Tennesce Confederate regiment. Hicks and M. W. Sutton pulled the rope that raised the flag. The boys that did the fighting in '61 to '65 are all for the old flag now, and it is only the politicians that don't know the war is over. By this time it was noon, so we all scattered in groups under the beautiful shade trees that abound in the grounds, and dinner with him, but there was an abundance for all; we had several invitations, but Comrad Gray captured us and we took dinner with him and his family. The state of Kansas to Charles F. Randail and S. H. Randail.

You will take notice that The State Bank of St. John. Kansas, as plaintiff, did on the 26th day of March. 1890, file its petition in the district court of Ford county, Kansas against you, as defendants, and join with your as your co-defendant, George F. McKinney, setting forth that Charles F. Randail, one of said defendants. under date of the 16th day of April. 1889, gave his morigage to The State Bank of St. John. Kansas, which said moritrage is now owned by plaintiff on the following described lands in Ford county, Kansas, to-wit:

The north-cast quarter of section 19, in township twenty-eight south, of range twenty-one west, of the sixth principal meridian, to secure the payment of certain roles now due to the amount of six hundred and fifty dollars as shown by one promissory note now owned by plaintiff and referred to in said morigage, and praying judgment against you Charles F. Randail in the sum of six hundred and fifty dollars now claimed to be due and unpaid, with interest thereon at 12 per cent. from the 16th day of April 1889, and that said premises may be sold to pay the judgment on said note and mortgage. Said petition further alleges that the claim of each of the defendants Charles F. Randail, S. H. Randail and George F. McKinney is junior and inferior to that of plaintiff. Now the said defendants are hereby notified that they must appear and answer said petition on or before the Esth day of August, 1890, or said

Clerk of the district court in and for Ford con Attorney for Plaintiff.
